

DJ's in town!

Top DJ Joachim Garraud is all geared up to rock Bushido on March 29, 9pm onwards.

Ranked at 75 in the top 100 DJs in DJ Mag, he is known for performing with his Keytar (keyboard guitar) and his alien mask.

After having perfected his piano and percussions for seven years, he decided to move towards electronic music. DJ Garraud is famous for live electro sets, producing tunes with Jean Michel Jarre, David Bowie, Kylie Minogue and three albums with David Guetta.

With the release of his only artist album, 'Invasion' in 2008, he stages an intergalactic, sensory-exploding, audiovisual spectacle with the help of a team of six graphics experts.

● DJ Garraud

DJ Garraud developed a new concept of blending DJ skills and musical improvisation. Today, he is surrounded by a big community with the Space Invader mascot.

Resident DJ Dara Singh will warm up the stage with his set of beats before the big performance.

Visitors will have a chance to win prizes from Urban Design worth BD2,000 sponsored by BoConcept.

Regular tickets for ladies are priced at BD10 and BD15 for men.

VIP tickets for ladies are priced at BD20 for men and BD30 for men. A regular table will cost BD300 and a VIP table will cost BD500. For more information, call 17583555.