

BUSHRA AT BUSHIDO

Let's talk contemporary cool meets traditional trend! At Bushido you're in for a spectacular time when visiting the venue's Ramadan tent, Bushra.

Following a fresh Arabo-Ottoman concept, the spirit of the Holy Month will be kept alive as Bushido's opulent Japanese-pagoda is transformed into an Arabic tent infused with modern touches. From the décor to the music playlist and, more importantly, the food, Bushra will offer authenticity with an up-to-date twist.

Food is the main focus here; with the menu divided into a selection of Arabic, international and Bahraini cuisine. Enjoy threed, harees and qatayef, as well as saj, shawarma, ouzzi, hot and cold mezza, soups, and many more tasty delights (all thanks to the culinary skills of Chef Noor Murad).

Also, buckle up for an innovative surprise as Bushra delivers a visual spectacle in the form of 3D mapping. The tent will utilise the latest technology to create magical projections like waterfalls and beautiful scenery on the surface of its interior.

If that's not enough, guests can also marvel the many paintings and artworks, inspired by the Ottoman Empire and Arabic culture, that will be displayed around the venue.

Then there's the shisha lounge! Sit back and enjoy quality time with family and friends while indulging in your favourite shisha flavours. The lounge is open from 6pm to 1am with regular shisha priced at BD6 (++) , while fresh or special fresh shisha will set you back BD8 (++) .

Iftar will run from 6pm to 8pm costing BD13.500 (++) on weekdays and BD2 extra on weekends. Guests will find that Ghabga runs from 9pm to 1am and is relatively well priced at BD10.900 (++) on weekdays and BD12.900 (++) on weekends.

It's set to be a buzzing Ramadan at Bushra so get down there to join in the celebration!
